

Which abolitionist started the newspaper The Liberator and gave new life to the abolitionist movement?

William
Lloyd
Garrison

Who escaped from his owner and established his own newspaper, the North Star?

Frederick
Douglass

What were
"penny press" papers?

inexpensive newspapers that appealed to a larger audience by offering simply but vividly written news and human interest stories at a cheap price: a penny per paper

Who wrote Uncle Tom's Cabin?
What effect did it have?

Harriet Beecher Stowe; made many notherners active opponents of slavery and created sympathy for the North with the British public.

What argument did Hinton Rowan Helper promote in his book The Impending Crisis in the South?

Helper argued that slavery was harmful to the South and that it enriched the large planter at the expense of the small independent farmer.

What qualities did the Horatio Alger stories promote?

Hard work and honesty

Who was Mark Twain?

A famous author of the late nineteenth to early twentieth-century whose works include The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and The Gilded Age

What was the "Greatest Show on Earth"?

The Barnum and Bailey Circus

What kind of literature and art gradually replaced Romanticism during the 1880s?

Realism

What are two books written by Henry James?

Daisy Miller and The Portrait of a Lady

Who wrote
A Century of Dishonor?

Helen Hunt
Jackson

What were the "Br'er Rabbit Tales"? What other literary character did Joel Chandler Harris develop?

The "Br'er Rabbit Tales" were an oral literature that developed among slaves in which they secretly ridiculed their masters; Uncle Remus